Dear Mr. Thompson.

Having just read your book So Help me
God which you autographed for Mrs. C at R.O. Book Store, I wish to thank as compliment you on the plot and style. As I read the book I kept recalling your brother Tommy and what a talent he had for writing. I admire you for being able to combine your legal practice with the discipline of creative writing - move over John Gisham! I hope you plan other books. Best wishes for good health

Sincerely,
Denton Cooley
