Dear Larry:

Now that I'm retired I just stop by my office occasionally - as I did last Wednesday - and found your book "So Help Me God" on my desk.

Thanks for disrupting my sleep the next two nights. I couldn't put the book down and hated to read the last page on Saturday. I'm still really excited over it.

While this is a story which will obviously captivate those in the legal community, I predict it will be devoured by the public as well.

It is right on target on so many really controversial, serious and difficult issues and you have portrayed both sides - or should I say - all sides fairly and sensitively.

Thank you for your friendship, great lawyer!

Very truly,

George E. Pletcher

P.S. Your brother must really be proud of you.
